SAN FRANCISCO WISH LIST

It's an age-old question: what to give that relative or friend on your list who has everything? May we suggest the gift of experience—a San Francisco experience to be precise. This creative little city is brimming with unique gift ideas in the form of getaway packages, gift certificates, and more to give that one who already owns every gadget and gizmo they need.

An Afternoon of Wine Tasting

Tasting boutique wines from all over California doesn't require spending hours in a car—take your wine-loving friend or family member for an afternoon of tasting at Press Club in downtown San Francisco. Their "Holiday Reds" flight menu ($18/flight) includes tastes of the Mount Eden Saratoga Pinot Noir, Chateau Montelena Zinfandel, and Miner's "The Oracle." All wines are also for sale in this gorgeous cellar below the Four Seasons Hotel on Yerba Buena Lane, so you can buy your recipients their favorite bottle. As an added bonus, Gentry readers will receive 15 percent off all Riedel stemware in Press Club's retail area during the holidays! www.pressclubsf.com
