

DEPARTMENTS

- 51 FINDS: WALK THIS WAY
A set of reclaimed-wood tables are ready to march out the door of the new Fred Segal Green.
- 52 FINDS: SEE, PLAY AND STAY
Check out the newest restaurants, store openings, nightclubs and hotels around California.
- 56 FINDS: NINE FRESH PICKS
The latest options for your kitchen and bath, direct from Milani and K/BIS in Chicago.
- 62 TREND REPORT: EXTREME CLOSE-UP
The pixel jumps from the screen into the home, on furnishings and accessories.
- 65 DESIGN IDEAS: SHOW AND TELL
Three designers take us inside this year's San Francisco Decorator Showcase.
- 72 ARTS+ANTIQUES
A monthly report on art auctions worldwide and museum exhibitions around the state.

RENEWABLE RESOURCE

In order to bring stylish, eco-friendly home products to their neighbors, Bridget and Kirk Bradley have just opened Reclaim in Menlo Park. Stocked with organic sheets and towels, the one-stop green resource also offers interior design services and can refer customers to like-minded contractors and architects.

*855-A Santa Cruz Ave., Menlo Park,
650-329-9480, reclaimhome.com.*

NAPA ALLEY

Tucked along Yerba Buena Lane in downtown San Francisco, Press Club brings the experience of Wine Country to the heart of the city. Eight small-production wineries offer tastings and retail sales in a 9,000-square-foot underground space designed by Baldauf Catton von Eckartsberg Architects, the firm that transformed the SF Ferry Building. 20 Yerba Buena Ln., SF, 415-744-5000, pressclubsf.com.

